

Farmington River, Seasonal TMA (Avon – Canton)

~ 9,650 trout stocked annually
Updated: February 2012

Bike path begins
on Arch Street. No Vehicles in this stretch

Below lower Collinsville dam

RT 179

Path by split rail fence on right before RT 179 parking area

Path opposite large parking area on RT 179

Road crossing
between two gates

Wide opening path 200m down from road crossing by juxtaposed split rail fences

Path by bike path kiosk

Second pull-off just before stream crossing

Bike path Entrance for vehicles

First pull-off on New Rd.

At parking area
cul-de-sac.

New Rd.

RT 4

At the wide spot along newly constructed section of bike path before it pulls away from river.

Huckleberry Road

At back of new bike path parking area.

Behind Mini-golf and red antiques building.

Small bike path parking area on River Rd

RT 177 Lower end of TTA

Pull-off down dirt side road.

Near bike path crossing at road running south of the river and just upstream of the RT 177 bridge.

Key to stocking points

- Regular with public access ●
- Private, but open to fishing ●
- Stocked under good conditions ○